

Seeking Great Women!

Call for nominations

The Business Women’s Leadership Group annually honors women who have made significant contributions through innovations and a committed effort to address a meaningful business or community need, locally, regionally, nationally, or globally.

Candidates for nomination are women who:

- Reside in Boulder County
- Have demonstrated a leadership position
- Have contributed to the business community, the arts, education, health care, sports or the environment.

Winning nominees will be honored at the 14th Annual Women Who LIGHT the Community
luncheon on Friday, September 18, 2009
at the Millennium Harvest House from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm.

Nominations must address:

- Identification of the business or community need (local, regional or global) or innovation (500 word limit)
- A description of how the need or problem was addressed, including the leadership role played by the candidate. (For example leadership contributions may be in terms of time, energy, or money). This could also be a description of how an innovation has improved quality of life, the environment, etc. (500 word limit)
- A description of how the nominee models the behaviors and actions that reflect what we want to see more of in our community (500 word limit)

(Submittal of materials other than those requested will not be accepted)
